- 25X1X 1. [REDACTED] states that the newly-discovered copper deposits at Horo, Iraq, are very extensive.
2. Explorations to date indicate that, because the ore is on the surface, the initial operations will be of the strip mining type.
3. Deep snow in the area has caused the suspension of explorations until spring, when borings will be made to determine the depth and extent of the ore deposits.
